Prime Minister Grameena Digital Saksharata Abhiyaan
10days Computer training organized in association with
Common Service Centre (CSC), Dharwad

The Community Services and Extension activities Committee of our college in association with the Common Service (Sai Net Centre) Dharwad organised 10 days computer training program under Prime Minister Grameena Digital Saksharata Abhiyaan for the year 2020-21. Our Alumni Miss Anita Haibatti, who is working in the Computer centre, trained our students on the Basics of Computers like MS Office, its operating system, creating email ID, operating the mail, sending and receiving the mails, giving responses to the mails. She also gave information about the use DIGI locker where in one can save their important documents safely, Basic information about Net Banking and Sending money through Phone Pay and Google Pay was also taught by sending minimum money to one another's phones. The significance of NEFT, RTGS and using them were taught in the session, Updating the ADHAAR & PAN cards was also explained as many people want their cards updating because of small mistakes and changes. 110 students of our college were benefitted by this programme.

Objectives: 1. To Create Awareness among students about PMGDISHA

2. To Train the students about using Email, Phone Pay, Google Pay Digi locker, etc.

The training was carried out for 10days from 20/01/2021 and the online generated certificates were issued to the participants.
