Report of the Certificate Course on Beautician

The Alumni Association of the College organized a Certificate Course on Beautician for our students from 21/02/2020 to 21/03/2020. The course duration was 50hours but it was reduced to 30 hours due to Pandemic Corona. We began with enthusiasm but were forced to close the course on 14/03/2020. Smt. Roopa Annigeri(Hongal), the proud alumni of our college was a Certified Trainer. She is running a Parlour successfully at Dharwad since 26years.

After explaining the basics of keeping oneself neat and tidy, the trainer spoke about mannerisms and the communication skills required for everybody especially girls in the society. Initially, the trainer explained about the fundamentals of beautician techniques and thoroughly explained and demonstrated different therapies. Along with teaching threading, haircut, waxing, hair pack, serum therapy, colouring, different types of haircuts, significance of herbal facial, pimple therapy, pedicure & manicure, Mehandi designs and nail art, students practiced them rigorously. Students were introduced to VLCC, Shahanaz Hussain, Himalaya and Lakme products.

Course outcome: The students participated in the course have started their own parlour at their village and practicing the same. They have also started small start ups to sell the beauty products and providing services at marriage and other ceremonies. Our students are providing home services too. Some of the students are participating in the competitions and events.
