About the College

Shri Hurakadi Ajja Shikshana Samiti's Smt. K. S. Jigalur Arts & Dr. (Smt.) S. M. Sheshgiri Commerce College for Women, Dharwad is established in the year 1986 by Shri Hurakadi Ajja a great saint and a worshipper of goddess Bagalamba. Shri Hurakadi Ajja had an ardent desire to establish an educational institute exclusively for women. He had a great number of disciples. Out of generous donations of Poonya Ajja's disciples, this college was established in the name of donors, Smt. Kallava Shivappanna Jigalur & Dr. (Smt.) Sushila Murgappa Sheshgiri, with a motive to educate women and develop them as the pillars of the society.

The college is located in the heart of the city with necessary infrastructure, well qualified staff, many with Ph.D and M. Phil degrees. With the support of enlightened management, we have been able to take the institution to great heights in all spheres. The college is affiliated to Karnataka State Akkamahadevi Women's University, Vijayapura.

By profession, I am an Agricultural Economist with specialization in Agricultural Marketing and Supply Chain Management. After my Ph. D on the subject, I have worked in the University of Agricultural Sciences, Dharwad, India for seven years from 1998 to 2005. Here I was involved in various ICAR funded research projects such as Contract Farming, Role of Regional Rural Banks in Agricultural Credit and Animal based Farming System. The nature of job included data collection, analysis and report writing. Further, I joined National Institute of Agricultural Marketing (NIAM), Jaipur, India and served for eight years from 2005 to 2013. In NIAM, the major assignments carried out include consultancy, training, research and teaching in the field of agricultural marketing and agribusiness management. As a part of consultancy, I was involved in the preparation of detailed project reports for setting up of Terminal markets and project reports for various marketing infrastructure. I was also involved in the preparation of policy papers to the Ministry of Agriculture on various issues relating to agricultural marketing. Besides, I have conducted several training programmes and also delivered sessions on various issues such as linking farmers to market, contract farming, alternative marketing system and reforms in agricultural marketing system. The notable achievement in NIAM was preparation of "Agricultural Marketing Master Plan" for Royal Government of Bhutan. The final presentation was made by me before Secretary (Agriculture), Royal Government of Bhutan.

Now I am working as Director (Monitoring and Evaluation) in the National Institute of Agricultural Extension Management (MANAGE), Hyderabad, India from May, 2019 till date. I worked as a Deputy Director (Monitoring and Evaluation) from June, 2013 to May, 2019. In my career, I have had opportunities to work in the areas of consultancy, research studies, capacity building, and teaching agribusiness management students. In the course of my profession, I had opportunities to visit Bhutan, Thailand, Mozambique, Tanzania, Vietnam and Cornell University, USA. I have published more than 50 research papers in different National and International Journals. I am also a life member for various scientific journals.
