International Women's Day Celebration

08/03/2019

On the occasion of International Women's Day celebration, Resource Person Poorti Sharma addressed the students and focused her views on Empowerment of Women. She said, The empowerment of women should not be used for political or economic gain. The real empowerment of women suffering from problems to gain economic, educational and political strength. She said lot of discussions had taken place about the women's empowerment. But no significant changes were seen in their status. She displayed some pictures concerned to women empowerment. She advised to students to help illiterate women who were living a miserable life.
